Rao Bahadur Rajyasevanirata Dr. N. Kunjan Pillai: She has finished her training but has not passed the examination.

Mr. N. Abdur Rahiman Sahib: May I know when she finished the training?

Rao Bahadur Rajyasevanirata Dr. N. Kunjan Pillai: In 1936, I believe.

Applications for arrest of judgment-debtors in the Munsiff's Court, Trivandrum

80. * Mr. N. Abdur Rahiman Sahib: Will the Government be pleased to state:

(a) what is the total number of original and small cause suits in which judgment-debtors had to be sent to jail in the Trivandrum Principal and Additional District Munsiffs' Courts in the year 1112,

(b) the total number of cases where prayer for warrant was made in 1112 in the above courts;

(c) the number of cases where warrants of arrest were issued during the year 1112;

(d) in how many cases jail batta or subsistence allowance for judgment-debtors was actually paid into court by decree-holders;

(e) in how many cases partial payments were made by judgment-debtors without sending them to jail; and

(f) why was the rule for deposit of one month's subsistence allowance along with the execution application in all cases where warrant is prayed for, necessitated?

Mr. Kayalam Paramesvaran Pillai: (Additional Head Sirkar Vakil): (a) 16.

(b) 3,505

(c) 2,653

(d) 52

(e) 912

(f) There is no rule to that effect. There is Rule 254 C. C. Guide providing that, before committing a judgment-debter to jail in execution of a decree, certain payments should be made including subsistence money for such portion of the month as remains unexpired after the date of commitment.

Mr. N. Abdur Rahiman Sahib: With reference to part (a) may I know what is the duration for which they are sent to jail?

Mr. Kayalam Paramesvaran Pillai: I claim notice.
